

Program Director

Primary Responsibilities: The Girls First Programming Director is responsible for overseeing and facilitating non-academic activities for the Girls First Campers. The Program Director will provide supervision and support to the Girls First Special Events Coordinator and Program Staff. The Program Director will assist the Director of Girls First in day-to-day administrative tasks such as supply requests for programs, organization of activity sign-ups, and activity facilitation if needed. This position requires you to live on the Madeira campus in a provided dormitory for the duration of the residential program.

About Girls First: Girls First is celebrating its 26th year of introducing middle-school aged girls (rising 5th-rising 9th grade) to the traditions and spirit of The Madeira School. Girls First offers a unique experience of mixing in-classroom instruction with extracurricular activities that make it a diverse summer camp option! With areas of study, or tracks, ranging from science based to performing arts, there is something for any interested camper who wants to learn and play in a supportive community. Girls First is offered as a one-week or two-week residential sessions or a one-week day session; each session offering a glimpse of what it is like to be a Madeira student.

Minimum Requirements: 21 years of age older or at least two years out of high school. This position must be willing and able to be trained as a small bus driver. Previous experience with event planning, management of projects, and strong communication skills are preferred but not all are required.

Reports to: Director of Girls First
